

Senior Citizen Activities

The Larchmont-Mamaroneck Senior Citizen Center, under the auspices of the Town of Mamaroneck Community Services Office, provides a variety of recreational, social and educational activities, weekdays, year round. The Center is open to all local seniors, age 60 and over, and to seniors from neighboring communities. Most activities are free or have a nominal charge. A monthly calendar of events and programs is available. The annual membership fee is $25.

Please note the Center is at the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW), David Potts Jr. Post #1156, 1288 Boston Post Road. The Center is completely accessible with handicapped restroom facilities and ample parking.

Door to door bus transportation is available for seniors living in Larchmont and the Town of Mamaroneck. Transportation is also available from the Larchmont Library when requested.

For information on transportation and other senior services call Community Services Director, Anna Danoy: 381-7840.

For membership information and a calendar of events call Activities Coordinator, Maria Gallagher: 834-8840.
